Photography In The SAC

Hello everyone,

This weeks presenter is David Bong. David is a street photographer who also indulges in nature photography. His style and his approach to photography breaks many boundaries and so called "rules" of photography, pushing his images to the fine art realm. I am looking forward to Davids talk.

The photo walk at the shipyards was a great experience. There were about a dozen people that turned up for it so there was a lot of creativity happening. Afterwards, a few of us went to the Quay Market for a delicious lunch and more conversation. I will be interested to see what images the other folks got.

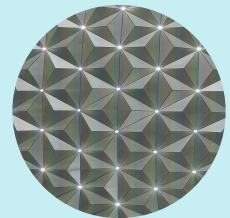

I know that many of you are wondering about Celebrations of life for both Nancy Ricker and Jaqueline Clayton. I have included in this newsletter links to information on their COL's as well as links to RSVP your attendance.

Looking forward to seeing you all on Thursday.

Len Grinke, MPA

David Bong will be speaking at our Sept 24 meeting.

CAPA Speaker Series Invitation

CAPA is kicking off its fall season with something special, and they wanted all photographers to have a front-row seat.

Normally, the prestigious CAPA Speaker Series is an exclusive benefit reserved solely for paid CAPA individual members. But for one night only, they are opening the season premiere to all Canadian photography enthusiasts – completely free!

CAPA would love for you to join them live on YouTube for an inspiring presentation by renowned photographer Michael Tardioli:

Lineage of Seeing: The Evolution of Critical Photography

Michael will trace the fascinating shift of photography from simple documentation to a powerful, expressive art form. He'll explore key historical movements, highlight influential artists, and share a showcase of his own personal favourite works.

Event Details:

Date: Wednesday, September 23, 2026

Time: 7:00 PM Eastern

Cost: FREE (Open to all skill levels)

Language: English

Where: capacanada.link/SpeakerSeries

Whether you're looking to refine your craft, find new creative inspiration, or just get a glimpse of what CAPA membership offers, this is a talk you won't want to miss. Mark your calendar, and we'll see you in the live chat!
